

The Friendship Ashes

Friendship campfires are a tradition in Scouting. Another tradition started in Scouting's past is the taking of ashes from a campfire, then adding them to the next campfire and then continuing to repeat the process. In this manner a family tree of campfires is created. Only people attending the campfire are allowed to collect the ashes to be passed on. As you can tell by the list, these ashes have quite a history. Make it a practice whenever you attend a campfire to first add your ashes to that campfire, then take some of the new ashes home with you. You can then add that campfire to your list. When you combine your ashes in a campfire with others doing the same, the list are merged. The paragraph below is a suggestion for an ashes ceremony. Use it as it is, or adapt it to your own style.

Legend has it that Lord Baden-Powell would always take a small amount of ashes from the campfire and spread these ashes into the next campfire. The main purpose of these ashes is to bring to all Scouts and Scouters the International aspect of the world brotherhood of Scouting.

We carry the spirit of our friendships with us in the form of these ashes... memories of other campfires with other Scouts from other lands. May the joining of these ashes with the leaping flames of this new fire symbolize one more the unbroken chain that links Scouts and Guides around the world. With greetings from Scouts everywhere, these ashes have been carried by Scouts of many nations. The ashes come from campfires beginning in 1933 from these countries : Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Columbia, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Ghana, Greece, Holland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Korea, Lichtenstein, Luxembourg, Mexico, New Zealand, Norway, Panama, Philippines, Scotland, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, Thailand and The United States.

Will anyone with campfire ashes please come forward and join me.

(Wait for others)

The ashes I spread into this campfire carry memories of past campfires dating back to Place Number 1: 31 July – 8 August 1907 – England, Brownsea Island Camp, Poole England The Brownsea Island Scout camp began as a boys' camping event on Brownsea Island in Poole Harbour, southern England, organized by Lieutenant-General Baden-Powell to test his ideas for the book Scouting for Boys. Boys from different social backgrounds participated from 1 to 8 August 1907 in activities around camping, observation, woodcraft, chivalry, lifesaving and patriotism. Recognized as the world's first Scout camp, the event is regarded as the real origin of the worldwide Scout movement.

I/we will now charge these ashes to this campfire.
